Grade K- Computers Class:
When Charlie McButton Lost Power

Computers Classes:
- Monday, April 6, 2020
- Tuesday, April 7, 2020
- Wednesday, April 8, 2020
- Thursday, April 9, 2020
- No School on April 10th, 2020- Friday's Computers Class will be assigned this assignment on Friday, April 24, 2020 after we return from Spring Break

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
- ☐ Define the STORY ELEMENTS: Main Character, Setting, Plot in a story
- ☐ Identify the Main Character, the setting and elements of Plot in a story
- ☐ Retell a story
- ☐ Develop active listening skills as a story is read aloud using technology
- ☐ Identify and apply "Digital World & Real Life Balance" best practices
- ☐ Demonstrate developmentally appropriate navigation skills in virtual environments

LESSON MATERIALS:
- 💻 A parent/guardian to guide student through the reading parts of the lesson (Note that there are links to audio recordings for the instructions wherever possible.)
- 💻 This Lesson Directions Page (virtual PDF or photocopied PDF)
- 💻 A Digital Device (Smart Cell Phone with web browser App, iPad/Tablet with web browser App, Chromebook, Laptop/Desktop Computer (with web browser installed)
- 💻 Link to the lesson webpage: http://www.crazy4computers.net/charlie-mcbuttons.html
- 💻 Link to the Lesson Assignment on Google Forms: https://tinyurl.com/C-McButton

Lesson Directions:
==This lesson is located in Google Classroom.==
- ⌨ Navigate to the lesson website:
  http://www.crazy4computers.net/charlie-mcbuttons.html
  to read the lesson content, watch short video clips to review Story Elements (Character, Setting, Plot) and to read the picture book, When Charlie McButton Lost Power.
- ⌨ Next, navigate to the matching assignment for this lesson on the following Google Form link:
  https://tinyurl.com/C-McButton
  Make sure you click the Submit button at the bottom of the form when you have completed the assignment.

Have fun reading and learning about the balance that we should all have between the digital world and the real world. As much as many of us love to spend time using and learning about technology, it is equally important that we spend time "off screen."