MY PROFILE

TITLE OF BLOG

Think: What will your Personal Blog title be to best reflect who you are to your online readers?

Image of your AVATAR will eventually be placed here.

A QUOTE/ GREETING

Choose a quote or greeting to represent yourself or to welcome your readers to your blog. Note: You may look up famous quotes online using the link on your teacher's webpage if you need. Make sure you give credit to the author.

ABOUT ME

Here you will tell your readers about yourself. Describe your personality, heroes, inspirations, goals, fears, interests, and or hobbies.

Think of this section as a way to introduce yourself to someone who you have never met and is unfamiliar with you.

Note: This is not a diary entry. Do NOT include anything that is too personal, that would be embarrassing to you, or that you would not want others to know.

SONG NOW PLAYING

Many bloggers note what song they are listening to while they blog or share a song title/author that inspired them to write the blog letting the reader know the mood or feeling they had at the time. Lyrics must be appropriate.

I suggest writing two paragraphs with about five to seven sentences each so that your information fits in the box when you use the interactive online tool we will use for the next step to publishing our online profile.

MY LATEST BLOG ENTRY

For this exercise we are pretending to create a PERSONAL BLOG. Use this space to write about a recent event in your life. Briefly describe what happened, how you responded or reacted to the event, and what you plan to do next.

Note: You are to treat this section like a short personal blog post. What event in your life (again nothing too personal) would you blog about?

Keep the post limited to about two paragraphs with about five to seven sentences each for this activity to ensure it fits in the interactive online tool we will use in the next step to publishing our online profile.

MY INTERESTS AND FAVORITES

Think of a few categories in your life of interests and favorites to share with your readers. Do not repeat information from your ABOUT ME section. Instead give your readers some information about how you spend your time when you are not blogging.

Some things to think about:

Do you play sports, dance, or belong to clubs?

Do you read a lot? What kind of books or authors are your favorites?

Do you play games? If so, what kind of games do you enjoy playing?

Are you a movie buff? What genre of movies do you prefer?

How do you spend your free time?

Write about two paragraphs with about five to seven sentences each to ensure that the content will fit in the interactive online tool we will use to publish your Profile Section.
